HOLIDAY PARENTING TIME SCHEDULE

Each year, holidays may fall during school breaks, causing a conflict.

When a conflict happens, the priority will be:

1st Priority: Holiday Schedule; 2nd Priority: School Break Schedule; 3rd Priority: Regular Weekly Schedule

For example, when Christmas Eve falls within your winter break, but it is the other parent's turn to have Christmas Eve, the other parent will get their time on Christmas Eve, because the Holiday schedule has 1st Priority.

Holiday Schedule (check only one):

The holidays will be divided between the parents as follows:

- In even-numbered years, Petitioner will have the minor children on Group A holidays and Respondent will have the minor children on Group B holidays.
- In odd-numbered years, Petitioner will have the minor children on Group B holidays and Respondent will have the minor children on Group A holidays.

If yes, each parent must offer the other a first right of refusal as follows.

  - As soon as the need for childcare is known, the parent in need of childcare will contact the other parent.

12. RELOCATION OF MINOR CHILDREN

Relocation is when a parent seeks to move with children for distances of over 25 or 50 miles (depending on the county where they live).

- A. If a parent with the most parenting time or equal parenting time wishes to move with the children, they must get the agreement of the other parent or permission from the judge when:
  - The children's primary home is in Cook, DuPage, Kane, Lake, McHenry, or Will County and the move is within Illinois but more than 25 miles away from their current home; or
  - The children's primary home is in any other county in Illinois and the move is within Illinois but more than 50 miles away from their current home; or
  - The move is outside of Illinois and more than 25 miles from the children's primary home.
- B. The parent asking to move with the children must provide written notice to the other parent. The notice must:
  - Be given at least 60 days before the move unless that is impossible. If impossible, the notice must be given at the earliest date possible; and
  - State the date the parent plans to move; and
  - State whether the move is permanent or for a specific time period; and
  - State the new address, if known, unless the address is protected because of domestic violence or abuse.
- C. Agreement
  - No change is needed for parenting time - If the parents agree on the move and no change is needed to the parenting time schedule, both parties will sign the notices provided about the move and file it with the court. No court appearance is needed.
  - Changes in parenting time are needed - If the other parent agrees with the move but changes need to be made to the parenting time schedule, and the parents are in agreement about the changes to the parenting time schedule, the moving parent must:
    - Have the other parent sign the notice provided about the move;
    - File the signed notice with the court; and
    - File an updated Parenting Plan with the court. The court does not need to approve the move but the court must approve the changes to the Parenting Plan.
- D. Partial agreement
  - If the other parent agrees with the move, but both parents cannot agree on changes to the Parenting Plan, the moving parent must:
    - Have the other parent sign the notice provided about the move;
    - File the signed notice with the court; and
    - Follow the Handling Conflicts process set out below to try to reach an agreement with the other parent about changes to the parenting time schedule.
  - If no agreement can be reached after completing the Handling Conflicts process, file a petition to modify the parenting time schedule with the court.
- E. No agreement
  - If the other parent does not agree with the move, the parent relocating must:
    - Follow the Handling Conflicts process set out below to try to reach an agreement with the other parent; and
    - If no agreement can be reached after completing the Handling Conflicts process, file a petition with the court asking for permission to move.

13. CUSTODY & RESIDENCE FOR OTHER PURPOSES

Designation of Children's Custody and Residence for other purposes.

- A. Who has the most parenting time with the children? This designation will not affect parents' rights and responsibilities under the Parenting Plan.

Petitioner     Respondent

- B. Whose home is the children's residential address (for school enrollment purposes only)?

Petitioner     Respondent

14. CHANGES TO THIS PARENTING PLAN

If a parent wants to change this Parenting Plan, they will talk to the other parent. The parents will try to reach an agreement on their own.

- A. If the parents agree to a change, and the change is:

- A one-time or short-term change, then they will make the change without filing an agreement with the court.
- A long-term or permanent change, then they will draft and file a new Parenting Plan with the court.

- B. If the parents do not agree, then they will:

- Follow the Handling Conflict section below to try to reach an agreement about changes to the Parenting Plan. If an agreement is reached, follow the steps in 15.
- If the parents still don't agree after going through the Handling Conflicts process, the parent who wants the change must file a petition with the court asking for changes to this Parenting Plan.
- This Parenting Plan will be followed until the parents complete the Handling Conflicts process and agree to a new plan or a new Parenting Plan is approved by the court.

15. HANDLING CONFLICTS (MEDIATION)

If a parent wishes to change this Parenting Plan or feels the other parent is not following this Parenting Plan, the parents will talk and try to come to an agreement on their own.

If an agreement cannot be reached, parents will seek help from a mediator:

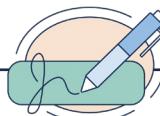

- Mediation is required on all issues because parents have joint decision making:
Parents must first try to come to an agreement through mediation.
  - Both parents must cooperate in scheduling and participating in mediation
  - Both parents must split the cost of mediation equally unless otherwise ordered by the court
- If mediation is unsuccessful, a parent must file a petition to modify this Parenting Plan or a petition to enforce this Parenting Plan with the court.
- Emergencies: In an emergency situation, a parent may file a petition with the court to get an immediate resolution without first going through mediation.
- Mediation is not required on all issues because:
  - One parent has all significant decision-making responsibility.
  - There is a history of domestic violence between the parties.
  - Other reason:

A parent must file a petition to change this Parenting Plan or a petition to enforce this Parenting Plan with the court.
